Fong Sin Fung and ors. To-day, their Lordships gave judgment, order in Chambers in this case 9th April last. It may be remembered that this was a suit instituted for a dissolution of the combination or partnership known as the Sun Yee Co., and in which a decree dissolution had been obtained by consent of all parties on the 12th April, 1880: the suit came on for hearing on further consi deration on the 28th April this year, and judgment was then reserved. This was an appeal against an order of the Judge in chambers made on the 9th April last concerning the price of 87 chests of opium by which order the price of the opium, was fixed and a certain interest was ordered to be paid to the Receiver. Defendant in the suit claimed for the difference between the price that had been paid to the Receiver and the price at which it had been settled by the order of the 9th April. The appeal against the order in Chambers of April 9th, given by the Acting Chief Justice, to the effect that the 8 boxes of opium which the respondents took over as appellants alleged wrongfully should be paid at the rate of $775 per thousand taels, was argued before the Full Court on plaintiff, said the defendant in the case was Cho Lai Tong,—there were two defendants registered as owners of the inland lots 447 and 448. The defendant admitted that he was owner of the sinland lots No. 447 and 448, but denied that he entered into any contract or authorised any person to enter into any contract with the plaintiff as to the purchase of these two lots. The issues were extremely simple. With reference to Tsang Ying one of the defences was that if he negotiated this contract and assuming that he received the $1300 they answered that Cho Lai Tong did not employ the man as his agent. It was very clear that judgment should be given against Cho Lai Tong if he received any part of the money, and if Tsang Ying received part of the money then both parties would be liable and both may settle it up between them. In what respect they denied this thing the plaintiff had no means knowing. The case of the plaintiff would hinge to a certain extent upon one was to the effect that the deed was executed by Cho Lai Tong, vendor of the lots and receiver of the bargain money who had sold to the plaintiff, Nos. 447 and 448 inland lots situated in Queen's Road West, with the houses creeted thereon, together with the strip of vacant ground behind for $35,000, and that the defendant had accordingly received $100, further sum of $1,200 was to be ad vanced within ten days, and the whole transaction to be completed within a the vendor should not be allowed to withdraw from the bargain. This was dated on the 23rd of October 1880,-Witness to payment of $8,300, Li Hing. There was a mystery about this amount of $8,300 and $1,300.

The Chinese seemed to have a remarkable habit of putting down sums much larger than those for which the property was sold In this case $8,300 had been put down where the total price was $35,000; $7,100 d been paid in deposit, and $1,200 was to be paid shortly thereafter, the whole sum being $8,300. The real contract was for $28,000. The $1,200 and $100 were paid, so that in reality the total sum that passed was $1,300. The plaintiff was perfectly entitled to sue for the money which he had actually and the defendant had wrongfully kept back from fulfilling his contract. Mr Hayllar read a second document in the nature of a contract by the defendant binding himself to hand over the lots aforesaid on certain conditions. He had received $100 and was to receive another $400 a week from that date. This document had been obtained by Tsung Ying from Cho Lai Tong. There were some mortgages held over the property by the Father Sainz of the Spanish Procuration, about the 13th of December. When the doeds were ready for signing a clerk was sent from Messra Brereton & Wotton to Choi Lai Tong about the matter. He (Mr Havilar | put in. said) put them off from day to day, and ultimately the case was brought into Court, Wong Tsuk Lam said he was a Clerk in the Surveyor General's Department. He

The document was written by witness and given to Choi Lai Tong to sign, Witness being questioned about the date said it really was the 20th, but it would not do to dispute with the master. The master signed it. He did not notice whether any other person was present. He was a witness to this document, and there second engineer, S.
